Motion by Karolyn Andrews to approve the minutes. Seconded by Lisa Cashiola. Motion passed 4-0.

2. CONSIDERATION AND POSSIBLE ACTION:

No considerations or possible actions.

3. INFORMATION AND DISCUSSION:

3A. Quarterly Update by Library Director

Diane Miller provided highlights from the second quarter:

Staff

- Esme Ovalle continues to take on more Librarian duties, she is self-managing and completing her master program duties.
- Circ staff adopting a 'set' schedule thereby reducing management time on custom week-to-week reports.

Operations

- Baker & Taylor abruptly ended operations at the end of the calendar year, including Boundless econtent. BHML experiencing minimal impact as we had already moved to diversify. Using Amazon and looking at other industry vendors. Discussion of Brodart McNaughton lease as well. Using Libby Overdrive to augment econtent.
- Process improvements continue re:book acquisitions and processing.
- Weeding, training done as able.
- Interior lighting continues to be a battle.
- Using room as Family Activity Room (replacing Teen Room title).
- Public computer stations reduced by almost half, recalling usage historically 6%. No service issues to date, some problems with Princh App. Princh link facilitate printing without having to use a computer.
- Security gates also discussed. Transition to SenSource in process.

Programming

- Christmas Holiday was fantastic. Letters to Santa Mailbox, Hill Country Quilt Guild display incredible. Arizona Cypress live tree and education. Lacey Oak to follow.
- New programming implemented and showing community engagement - Tech Help, Fiber Friday, Romance Book Club, and Duplo Club.
- Moving Stuffed Animal Sleep Over due to weather. Great event, photo opportunities.
- Creative writing events continue to be successful.

3B. Library Budget Report

Ms. Miller reported that General Fund and Memorial Fund expenditures are in line with projections.

3C. Update on History Center Activities

Sidney Baker, Earl Garrett and Francisco Ramos display.

Steer History Center towards Veteran's History support.

Shifting staff to support Veteran's Oral History Center through Library of Congress.

Successful meeting with Remschel Trust in October.

3D. Update on A.C. Schreiner House Activities

Renovation complete, temporary certificate of occupation, hand off imminent. Elevator testing imminent. Landscaping and temporary irrigation proceeding.

3E. Update on Friends of the Library Activities

Kay Harter advised that Friends going digital and save printing and distribution costs.

- 1,500 volunteer hours, $41,000 income; Memberships and Donations.
- Continue using book reseller/bulk book buyer.
- Little library support has 5 little libraries they are supposed to support. Working to identify those 5 little libraries and support them.
